

About Us

Written by Administrator

About Us

Dedicating more than 27 years service to surgeon's care, Medimec is one of the most reputed manufacturer and exporter of a Intrauterine Devices (IUDs) We have been awarded with an ISO 9001:2000, CE & WHO GMP Certification for providing high quality products. We endeavor to maintain the quality and uniqueness of our products and deliver it on schedule. Our Quality Policy to provide product & services, which consistently meet or exceed the expectation of our customers and be the leader in the market we serve. Our customer means e ach one of us at Medimec is committed to doing our best every day to provide the products and services you need to assist in delivering the best patient care possible. All MEDIMEC products are designed and manufactured to consistently meet high quality and performance standards.

Quality Assurance

Our Quality Assurance systems are ISO 9001 : 2000 certified for materials and components used in ma

MEDIMEC has been supplying Intrauterine Contraceptive Devices Cu 250 to the Government of Malaysia for the National Family Welfare program since 2006

MEDIMEC IUDs have been exported worldwide covering all five continents. Infrastructure we have an ultra modern manufacturing unit, well equipped to produce perfect products, which have excellent qualities such as safety, reliability, convenience and comfort. We have acquired state-of-the-art technology and in-house facilities and constantly upgrade our production process with new innovations. Medimec stands for perfection and non-manipulation, believing in supplies of only high quality standard products. Production The molding, manufacturing and assembling are carried out by highly trained employees in controlled environmental conditions of Class 10,000 to reduce bio burden on the product to minimum possible level Quality Control Total control of quality is a plant wide activity and represents aggregate responsibility of all personnel. However the responsibility for defining and auditing the QC system and for evaluating the quality of the finished product rests with the Quality Control Dept within each manufacturing operation.

About Us

Written by Administrator

Client Base

The company has grown by owing to its commitment towards excellence and emphasis on trust and clarity for its products. It has made an indelible mark in the quality conscious markets of Malaysia as well as nations across the world. The company has extended its services to international markets by registering their products in Latin America, Europe, Russia, Middle East, and Central & South East Asia.